UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,)
)	NO. CR06-296 JCC
Plaintiff,)
)	ORDER FOR TRIAL
v.)	CONTINUANCE
HAO QUANG TRAN,)
Defendant.)

This matter having come before the undersigned Court by an unopposed motion of counsel (Dkt. No. 185), the United States through the United States Attorney for the Western District of Washington, Susan M. Roe, Assistant United States Attorney for said district, the Court being fully advised in the matter, now finds that

The trial was scheduled for February 5, 2007. The defendant previously has waived his speedy trial rights until February 28, 2007 (Dkt. No. 146), which is beyond the new trial date of February 26, 2007. The motion is made because the parties had serious settlement discussions, including a settlement conference which resulted in a plea agreement. The defendant decided to exercise his right to trial at the time of the scheduled plea which was late on February 1, 2007. Counsel have been diligent in addressing this matter but the failed plea combined with the unavoidable absence of at least one of the government's necessary witnesses render a February 5, 2007, trial date unfeasible. The Court finds that exclusion of additional time as to Defendant Tran under

1 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(B)(iv) is appropriate, taking into account the exercise of due
2 diligence.

3 The Court is aware that time limitations for trial and speedy trial concerns are set
4 forth in Title 18, United States Code, Section 3161.

5 Section 3161(h) outlines the periods of excludable time, including:

6 (8)(A) Any period of delay resulting from a continuance
7 granted by any judge on his own motion or at the request of 8 the defendant or his counsel or at the request of the attorney
9 for the Government, if the judge granted such continuance on 10 the basis of his findings that the ends of justice served by 11 taking such action outweigh the best interest of the public and 12 the defendant in a speedy trial. No such period of delay
13 resulting from a continuance granted by the court in 14 accordance with this paragraph shall be excludable under this 15 subsection unless the court sets forth, in the record of the 16 case, either orally or in writing, its reasons for finding that the 17 ends of justice served by the granting of such continuance 18 outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in 19 a speedy trial.

20 In this matter, the Court finds that further time is reasonable and necessary and is 21 with the speedy trial time period. The Court further finds that the ends of justice served
22 by taking such action outweigh the best interest of the public and Defendant Tran in a
23 speedy trial, within the meaning of 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(A). The proposed
24 continuance of Defendant Tran's trial does not appear to prejudice any party. This case
25 has few civilians witnesses and no known victims, therefore the rights of victims to a
26 speedy trial are not in effect. Therefore, the trial date is continued from February 5, 2007
27 until February 26, 2007. The time between the date of this Order and the new trial date
28 shall be excludable time under the Speedy Trial Act pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §§
3161(h)(8)(A) and 3161(h)(8)(B)(iv) as to Defendant Tran.

Dated this 2nd day of February, 2007.

John C. Coughenour
United States District Judge
